Steve, we've hit a small roadbump with the DLA signature. Some concerns over wording, which we believe are minor. Hope to resolve Monday.

Gentlemen,

We had heard that DLA would likely sign the AOC by COB today. We are hoping to get a status update so we can prepare for the rollout of the agreement (e.g. Press release, calls to elected officials). We are hoping we are still on track to get the Navy and DLA signed documents by COB today because we are hoping to have the agreement in place before the end of the fiscal year.

Thank you
